Mentorship Programme

NIFTEM has established a Mentorship Programme whereby, Students in a group are allocated to a faculty who acts as Mentor of students. The main features of this programme are

1. Mentor shall act as a friend, philosopher and Guide. Mentor will also act as local guardian of student.
2. Each mentor is expected to take care of students in maintaining their professional as well as personal upkeep in campus.
3. Mentors should interact with students at regular intervals.
4. Mentor shall be counselling them on their academic as well as personal issues.
5. Mentor shall keep a track of the progress of the student and shall act as a link between the parents of his advisees and NIFTEM.
6. Mentor shall also address his academic and other difficulties and coordinate with the teachers and NIFTEM authorities to work out a solution
7. Mentor shall also coordinate the village adoption program.
8. Students are expected to meet their mentors regularly to update them of their progress.
9. Students may discuss any issue with mentors to find out solution of their problems.
10. Students will have to report mentors before leaving the campus.
11. Students will send any request to NIFTEM authorities through their mentors.
